Travel time: November 2005.

After reading the nice report from toen.de (www.toen.de/berichte/reisebericht\_lissabon/) we flue to Lisbon.

All GPS-Data given at WGS84. Download all recommended places as MapSource-File: Download (gdb, 1kb)

Accommodation:

The **Pensao Ninho das Aguias has clean rooms. It is located below the Castelo de Sao Jorge and has a wonderful terrace with view over the city. Quiet and unique. Room charge is 25 to 35 Euro per person without breakfast. Even I do not know it breakfast is available. Just 100 meters down the road is a coffee bar where breakfast is possible. The Pensao is located at Costa do Castelo 74, 1100-179 Lisboa, Tel. 21 885 40 70. Very recommendable.

Sightseeing:

The Castelo de Sao Jorge is open daily from 9 AM to 6 PM and costs 3 Euro. It has some nice viewpoints.

The metal elevator in the middle of the city is very scenic and offers a good view from its top where a small coffee bar is located. 2.60 Euro for the round trip.

Everyone was telling us, how dangerous a trip with the tram line 28 will be. The one we took was almost empty and no thief visible. In peak season, take care.

The Docas offers a wide range of different restaurant. Only the noise from the bridge is somehow annoying.

If you want a English speaking tour guide, call Peter Feijao at Tel. 964 054 782. He also has a limousine service www.discoverportugal2day.com/limotours.htm.

Fado:

It is common in most restaurants to place some side dishes on the table which where not ordered. Do not accept them when you don't like them. Otherwise you have to pay them.

One of the most recommendable Fado-Restaurants is the Sr. Vinho at the Rua do meio a Lapa 18, Tel. 21 397 26 81, open daily from 8 PM to 2 AM. Reservation is necessary. 23 Euro minimum consumption. More information at www.restsrvinho.com.

Absolutely not recommendable are the Fado-Restaurants at Rua de S. Pedro at Alfama like the restaurant Maria da Fonte. Terrible Fado and food. 15 Euro minimum consumption.
